9. Filing a Chapter 11 Bankruptcy Case	Chapter 11 allows debtors to reorganize or liquidate according to a plan. A plan is not effective unless the court confirms it. You may receive a copy of the plan and a disclosure statement telling you about the plan, and you may have the opportunity to vote on the plan. You will receive notice of the date of the confirmation hearing, and you may object to confirmation of the plan and attend the confirmation hearing. Unless a trustee is serving, the debtor will remain in possession of the property and may continue to operate its business.
10. Legal Advice	The staff of the Bankruptcy Clerk's Office cannot give legal advice. To protect your rights, consult an attorney.
11. Creditors May Not Take Certain Actions	The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities. This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtors or the debtors' property. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, garnish wages, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtors. Creditors cannot demand repayment from debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although debtors can ask the court to extend or impose a stay.
12. Discharge of Debts	Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See 11 U.S.C. § 1141(d). A discharge means that creditors may never try to collect the debt from the debtor except as provided in the plan. If you want to have a particular debt owed to you excepted from the discharge and § 523(c) applies to your claim, you must start a judicial proceeding by filing a complaint and paying the filing fee in the bankruptcy clerk's office by the deadline specified in this notice. (See line 6 for more information.)
13. Claims	A Proof of Claim is a signed statement describing a creditor's claim. A Proof of Claim form "Official Form 410" can be obtained at the United States Courts Web site: (http://www.uscourts.gov/FormsAndFees/Forms/BankruptcyForms.aspx) or at any Bankruptcy Clerk's Office. If your claim is scheduled and is not listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, it will be allowed in the amount scheduled unless you filed a Proof of Claim or you are sent further notice about the claim. Whether or not your claim is scheduled, you are permitted to file a Proof of Claim. If your claim is not listed at all or if your claim is listed as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated, then you must file a Proof of Claim or you might not be paid any money on your claim and may be unable to vote on the plan. The court has not yet set a deadline to file a Proof of Claim. If a deadline is set, you will be sent another notice. A secured creditor retains rights in its collateral regardless of whether that creditor files a Proof of Claim. Filing a Proof of Claim submits the creditor to the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court, with consequences a lawyer can explain. For example, a secured creditor who files a Proof of Claim may surrender important nonmonetary rights, including the right to a jury trial. Do not include this notice with any filing you make with the court.
14. Option to Receive Notices Served by the Clerk by Email Instead of by U.S. Mail	1) The Electronic Bankruptcy Noticing (EBN) Program is open to all parties. You can register for EBN at the BNC website ebn.uscourts.gov, or 2) Debtors can register for DeBN by filing local form "Debtor's Electronic Bankruptcy Notice Request" with the Clerk of Court. Both options are FREE and allow the Clerk to quickly send you court-issued notices and orders by email.
15. Creditors with a Foreign Address	If you are a creditor receiving notice mailed to a foreign address, you may file a motion asking the court to extend the deadlines in this notice. Consult an attorney familiar with United States bankruptcy law if you have any questions about your rights in this case.
16. Copies of The Petition Must Be Served on The Following Parties	Internal Revenue Service, P.O. Box 7346, Philadelphia, PA 19101-7346. Securities and Exchange Commission, Northeast Regional Office, Woolworth Building, 233 Broadway, New York, New York 10279.
